

WEBINAR

AI FOR TRANSLATING NON-STANDARD PRODUCT DESCRIPTIONS TO INDUSTRY STANDARDS

● NOVEMBER 15, 2024 | 9 AM - 10:30 AM CDT

Discover how artificial intelligence is revolutionizing the way the energy industry handles product data. This webinar will introduce PIDX's innovative AI-powered tool, designed to seamlessly convert non-standard product descriptions into the PIDX format. Hosted on the PIDX website, this AI solution will enhance data consistency, making it easier for industry professionals to standardize product descriptions and improve interoperability.

Join us as we dive into the development of this AI-based tool, its integration with the Petroleum Industry Data Dictionary (PIDD), and how it tracks and logs requests through a document management system. You'll learn how this tool ensures accuracy in translation, fosters user satisfaction, and integrates smoothly with existing PIDX systems—setting new standards for data consistency in the industry.
